Performance Notes

The refrain of A Gentle Shepherd is inspired by the images contained in Jeremiah 23:3–6 and alludes to the “Good Shepherd” passage of John 10. In the Jeremiah passage, God promises to rescue Israel from the “bad” shepherds—the kings who had brought harm and division—and to anoint good shepherds, under whom Israel will prosper and flourish. The promise of a new king for Israel foreshadows the coming of the Messiah, who will make Israel whole again.

This scripture is proclaimed on the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time of Year B. A Gentle Shepherd is suitable for that and for other liturgies with the scriptural theme of shepherd, as well as for funerals and celebrations of anointing. The messianic imagery also makes it appropriate for use during Advent.
