Composer's Notes

This energetic hymn of faith, praise, and comfort may be sung with or without accompaniment. Let your choir sing in unison until the assembly knows the piece well, then try the harmonies. It can be sung straight with the printed rhythm or with a gospel swing. The given accompaniment has been kept deliberately simple; feel free to embellish it and add percussion, as has been done on the recording. "The Love of Christ" can be found on two recordings, Morning & Evening—Prayer for the Commute, Prayer for the Journey (double CD #20099, songbook #20139) and Glory Bound (CD #20638, octavo pack #20639), a compilation of pieces from Morning and Evening.

Liturgical Use: This piece can serve as an entrance or recessional song at any time; for ordinations, celebrations to the religious life, rites of Christian Initiation, especially at the scrutinies during Lent and other times of commitment or discipleship.
