

THAT THERE MAY BE BREAD

REFRAIN Moderately

F Am7 Dm7 F/C Bb

That there may be bread, that there may be joy for all hu - man - i - ty to share with grat - itude let this be our prayer and

F G C F Am7

Dm F/C F G C

may each child of earth long for a free-dom that will flour-ish in all

1-7 F to Verses Final F /E Bb F

lands. lands.

Text : Weston Priory, Gregory Norbet, OSB, b. 1940.

Music: Weston Priory, Gregory Norbet; keyboard acc. by Mary David Callahan, OSB.

Text and music © 1979, 1980, The Benedictine Foundation of the State of Vermont, Inc. All rights reserved. Used with permission.

Bb F Gm C F Bb C F Fine

VERSES

Bb C Am Dm

1. Sim - ple is the truth — that our lov can - not be real un - less we
 2. Still, the long night falls and yet for some, deep hun - ger cries — as their
 3. Lord, what should I do — to — have e - ter - nal life? — Love the
 4. Lord, who is my neigh - bor — one whose strug - gle — and whose
 5. Grate - ful for our life, can — be — free to thirst and work — for the
 6. At this ta - ble of — thanks giv - ing we are fed — with the
 7. Sign of God's deep love — is this ban - quet of new life: — know the

Bb F Cm C7 D.C.

1. choose to bless each oth - er, as bless - ing we have known.
 2. tears be - come their bread: — & their hope, too, soon may die.
 3. God who lives with - in you and — neigh - bor as your - self.
 4. needs you o - ver - look, while — com - fort you se - cure.
 5. plant - ing and the har - est — king - dom's life in all?
 6. life of Je - sus ris - en, — whom our hope is born.
 7. pres - ence of the Ho - ly, in — spir - it and in truth.