

WHO SHALL SOUND THE AIR WITH SONG

1. Who shall sound the air with song To praise the Source of all that lives?
2. What shall be our song's de-light In link-ing sense to sound and sight?
3. How can we, who turn a-side From all that's grace-ful, true and wise,
4. When shall such a song be sung By ev-'ry voice at-tuned to joy,
5. Now's the time and place to play With man-y mu-sics blend-ing in!

1. Who shall sing such mel-o-dy To fill the world with such a
2. What can mark the har-mo-ny That hon-ors all with such a
3. Sound the hu-man coun-ter-point To God's own strong in-car-nate
4. Wak-en-ing with pitch and pace Of jus-tice, hope, and last-ing
5. God's own theme of love and grace: Song of the earth and heav-en's

1. sto-ry Ech-o-ing the an-gel's glo-ry?
2. sto-ry Tell-ing of the Fa-ther's glo-ry?
3. sto-ry Show-ing forth a cross-born glo-ry?
4. peace En-liv-ened by the Spir-it's glo-ry?
5. sto-ry Found in lives here drawn by glo-ry.

Text: 78 798; Don E. Saliers, © 2005, Don E. Saliers. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.

Music: SOUNDING GLORY; Richard Hillert, b. 1923, © 2005, Richard Hillert. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.