Composer Notes

From Matthew 26:36–39 we see Christ praying in the Garden of Gethsemane, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet, not my will, but as you will.” When “thy will be done” from the Our Father is added, we have a synopsis of all prayer. This choral setting was designed for use during Holy Week, with appropriate liturgical connections to Palm Sunday of Our Lord’s Passion and Good Friday. It could also be used when the Our Father is the Gospel. Take time with each phrase, letting the words be felt and heard. Breathe deeply and quietly keeping a legato, sustained quality to the vocal parts. The accompaniment was originally written for harp but can also be played on piano or any keyboard with a good midi-harp sound.
