Note: Numerals indicate the beginning of the ostinato. Players should choose sections at will throughout the piece. 8 verses total.

Composer Notes

This Communion song was inspired by the words of Pope Benedict XVI: “The Kingdom of God comes by way of a listening heart. That is its path. And that is what we must pray for again and again” (Jesus of Nazareth [New York: Doubleday Religion, 2007, pg. 146]). In his discourse on the Good Shepherd, Jesus says: “the sheep follow him because they recognize his voice” (John 10:3–4). Psalm 23 expresses this relationship from the point of view of the sheep: “The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.” We shall not want because “you prepare me a banquet.”

The Liturgy of the Word ritualizes this lifelong endeavor to know and to follow the voice of the Good Shepherd. And the fruition of the Liturgy of the Word is communing with the Lord at table. In both we are drawn into an intimacy which Jesus himself describes: “I know mine and mine know me” (John 10:14). The mission of the Church and of each individual believer is borne out of this intimacy. The kingdom comes insofar as those who are called recognize and respond to the one who is calling.

Uses: This song may be used throughout the year for Communion. At preparation of the gifts, Communion, or post-Communion, it complements the readings of the following celebrations:

- Lent/Holy Week — Lent 3 (A) [harden not your hearts]
 Lent 4 (A) [cure of the man born blind]
 Lent 5 (B) [a covenant written on our hearts]
 Holy Thursday
- Easter Season — Easter 4 (A, B, C) [the Good Shepherd]
- Ordinary Time — Ord. Time 2–3 (A, B) [call of the disciples and Peter]
 Ord. Time 5 (C) [call of the disciples and Peter]
 Ord. Time 16 (C) [like sheep without a shepherd]
 Ord. Time 18 (A) [feeding the five thousand]
 Ord. Time 17–21 (B) [Jesus, the Bread of Life]
 Ord. Time 24 (B) [following in Jesus’ steps]
 Ord. Time 24 (C) [lost sheep; return of the prodigal son]
 Ord. Time 28 (A) [God’s reign like a rich feast]
 Our Lord Jesus Christ the King (A) [the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats]
 Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ [where I am, there will my servant be]
 Most Sacred Heart of Jesus
- Ritual Masses — First Communion; Holy Orders; Funeral Liturgy; Reconciliation

A LISTENING HEART

Bob Hurd

Ostinato Refrain

A list-'ning heart give us, O Lord, that we may al-ways hear your voice;

a list-'ning heart give us, O Lord, that we may al-ways fol-low you.

Verses

1. Your sheep know their shepherd, when you call we will follow. 2. You, O Lord, are my shepherd, by your side I want nothing. 3. To still waters you lead me to renew my failing spirit. 4. You prepare me a banquet in the face of harm and hatred.	5. You seek truth in the heart; fill my heart with your wisdom. 6. Make in me a pure heart, give to me a steadfast spirit. 7. As you open the scriptures, our hearts burn, burn within us. 8. For our hearts shall be restless till they rest, rest in you, Lord.
