

Divine Comedy

Jackie François

Intro | D | | | |

Verse 1
 D I searched for my whole life,
 G but I never found your eyes;
 Bm looking for love among the lies won't do. G
 D So I kept on waiting,
 G a heart broken in defeat,
 Bm until you came and romanced me, oh you. G
 A It's easier to settle Bm
 G than choose what is right;
 A to wait on love is harder Bm
 G than to grasp what's in sight. A

Refrain 1
 G D So you wrote me a letter,
 A Bm waking my heart to a better love than
 G D A Bm anything under the sun.
 G D Then you came to my door, saying,
 A Bm "Darling, search no more,
 G D A 'cause my love is all you need."

Verse 2
 D I got what I wanted,
 G although it took some tears and pain,
 Bm losing everything to find my gain in you. G
 D Oh, I never thought love could mean suff'ring and sacrifice G
 Bm until you came and crashed my life, oh you. G
 A It's easier to settle Bm
 G than choose what is right;
 A to wait on love is harder Bm
 G than to grasp what's in sight. A

Refrain 2 Repeat Refrain 1

Bridge
 Em7 A D Bm Oh, comedies always end with a wedding,
 G A D and you wanna marry me.
 Em7 A And with all these ups and downs
 D Bm that lead us to our nuptial vows,
 G A my hope can only conceive that
 G I'm living in your divine comedy.
 D A Bm G A comedy, oh.

Refrain 3 Repeat Refrain 1

Coda
