Performance Notes

Holy Is The Name Of God was composed as a Marian hymn that reflects the communal-centered theology of the Second Vatican Council in which Mary's role is emphasized within the context of the Church. One way I convey this ecclesiology is through the structure of the refrain, a dialogue between the liturgical musicians and the larger assembly and, in extension, all of creation. The verses, based on the text of the Magnificat, reflect Mary's unique blessedness in salvation history, as well as the saving promises of God from one generation to the next.

Another reason why I chose the responsorial structure for this song is to allow the assembly to watch the ritual action of the gathering/processional while still participating through singing. The choir needs to sing the responses to the cantor with enthusiasm in order to utilize their own leadership role. Sing each phrase with great conviction by pacing a steady 6/8 momentum throughout the entire piece.

VERSES: Cantor/Choir

1. From this day all generations shall call me blessed.
The All-powerful God has done great things for me.
2. God's mercy is upon those who fear the name of the Lord, for God has power and strength to scatter the proud of heart.
3. God casts the mighty ones down, down from their thrones.
God lifts the lowly ones up; the rich are sent away bare.
4. For God has come to the help of Israel, remembering the promise of mercy to Abraham.
