PSALM 126: I HAD A DREAM

Rory Cooney

REFRAIN: 1st time: Cantor; thereafter: All

I had a dream that God brought us back to Zi - on, — brought us back to our home, _____ to our home.

VERSES: Cantor

1. How we laughed, how we sang for joy!
Then the other nations said:
"Their God has done great things for them."
Yes, our God did do great things.
How happy we were that day! (to Refrain)
2. God, bring us back! Bring us home to our land, as your rains bring water back to springs gone dry.
Let those who cried while they planted the seed gather the harvest with joy.
Those who cried as they went out
will return with a song on their lips, harvest in their hands, harvest in their hands. (to Refrain)
