VERSES: (♪ = ca. 92)

1. Teach us, Shep-herd, till we learn the truths for which our spir - its yearn.
2. Crowds and mul - ti - tudes a - bound to fol - low you where you are found.
3. Your a - pos - tles came to you so that their deeds you might re - view.
4. E - ven the a - pos - tles knew that they must al - ways learn from you.

1. Take us to a qui - et place where we can talk and see your face.
2. Hid - den truths with - in you dwell, shown by the par - a - bles you tell.
3. You had sent them out to preach, once they had learned the truth you teach.
4. How much more, O Lord, than they, need we to hear the words you say.
