

FROM DEEP WITHIN A PRISON CELL

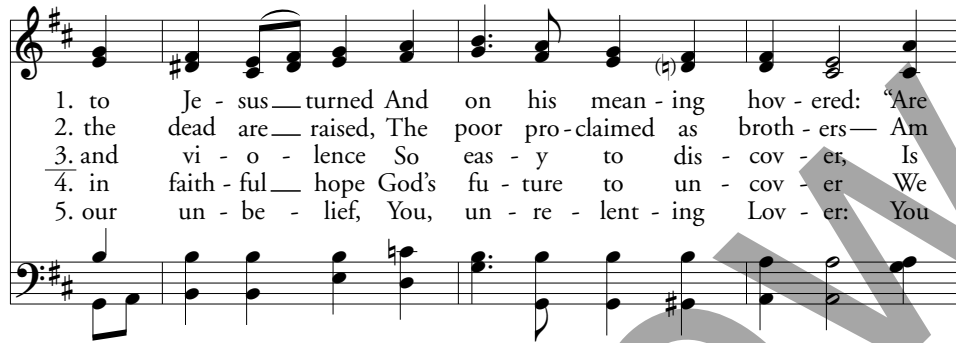

1. From deep with - in a pris - on cell A proph - et
 2. The an - swer Je - sus gave to John E - vokes his
 3. John's ques - tion haunts our quest - ing hearts, Down cen - tu -
 4. Though blind - ed minds re - fuse God's light It shines on
 5. For ev - ery act of suf - f'ring love Re - veals our

1. prayed and pon - dered God's high com - mand, his des - ti -
 2. king - dom's bless - ings: "The blind find sight, the deaf gain
 3. ries still spo - ken: What dif - f'rence does this Je - sus
 4. through the dark - ness. Though deaf - ened hearts re - sist God's
 5. God in Je - sus, Who donned our death that we might

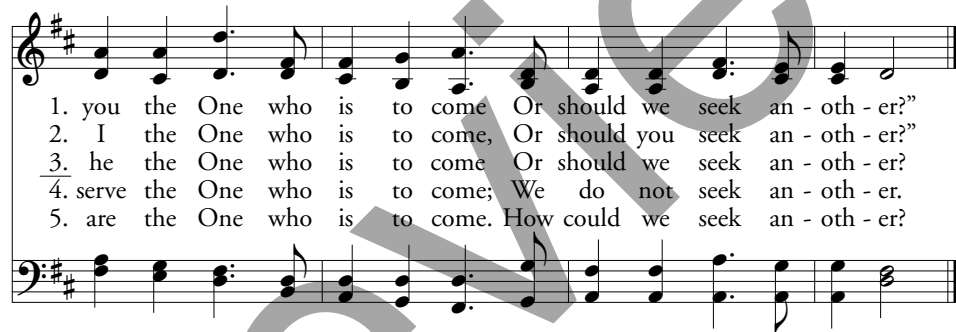

1. ny, The path - ways he had wan - dered, Un - til his ___ thoughts
 2. sound, And lep - ers, cleansed, ca - res - ing; The lame leap ___ up,
 3. make With - in a world so bro - ken? With greed and ___ hate
 4. word It sounds in ho - ly stark - ness. And when we ___ act
 5. live, Who res - cues us and frees us. So help us, ___ help

30116811

FROM DEEP WITHIN A PRISON CELL, CONT.

1. to Je - sus — turned And on his mean - ing hov - ered: “Are
2. the dead are — raised, The poor pro - claimed as broth - ers — Am
3. and vi - o - lence So eas - y to dis - cov - er, Is
4. in faith - ful — hope God’s fu - ture to un - cov - er We
5. our un - be - lief, You, un - re - lent - ing Lov - er: You

1. you the One who is to come Or should we seek an - oth - er?”
2. I the One who is to come, Or should you seek an - oth - er?”
3. he the One who is to come Or should we seek an - oth - er?
4. serve the One who is to come; We do not seek an - oth - er.
5. are the One who is to come. How could we seek an - oth - er?

Text: 87 87 D; Michael Joncas, b. 1951, © 2010, Jan Michael Joncas Trust. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.
Music: CONSTANCE; Arthur Sullivan, 1842–1900.