

BRIGHT AS THE SUN, FAIR AS THE MOON

1. Bright as the sun, fair as the moon, She
 2. Night is not dark where she stands bright, The
 3. O God, we read by her love's flame The

1. reigns, who held with in her womb The
 2. wom - an robed in liv - ing light, Crowned
 3. Word in whom we sing your name: We

1. Word made flesh, God's Son made hers, To
 2. with the stars, who served on earth The
 3. bow be - fore your maj - es - ty, One

1. whom the an - gel host de - fers.
 2. Word to whom her faith gave birth.
 3. ho - ly, three - fold Mys - ter - y.

Text: LM; Genevieve Glen, OSB, b. 1945, © 1998, The Benedictine Nuns of the Abbey of St. Walburga.
 Published by OCP. All rights reserved.
 Music: TRURO; Williams' Psalmodia Evangelica, Part II, 1789; harm. by Lowell Mason, 1792-1872, alt.