Verse 1

C
The King shall come when morning dawns
Fadd9
And light triumphant breaks,
C
When beauty gilds the eastern hills
Fadd9
And life to joy awakes.
G/B Fadd9
Not, as of old, a little child,
C G
To bear, and fight, and die,
G/B Fadd9
But crowned with glory like the sun
C/G G C
That lights the morning sky.

Verse 2

C
O brighter than the rising morn
Fadd9
When he, victorious, rose
C
And left the lonesome place of death,
Fadd9
Despite the rage of foes.
G/B Fadd9
O brighter than that glorious morn
C G
Shall this fair morning be,
G/B Fadd9
When Christ, our King, in beauty comes,
C/G G C
And we his face shall see!

Verse 3

G/B Fadd9
The King shall come when morning dawns
C G
And light and beauty brings.
G/B Fadd9
Hail, Christ, the Lord! Thy people pray:
C/G G Am
Come quickly, King of kings.
Dm7 G C
Come quickly, King of kings.
