

CHRIST STANDS

1. When mar - ket - place de - sires crouch 'round the Tem - ple's
2. Built up by hu - man hands — the won - der of its
3. Some claim to know the truth, con - fined in log - ic's
4. The fool - ish - ness of God sur - pass - es hu - man

1. stones and cun - ning - ly se - duce hearts meant for
2. age — the Tem - ple falls to ruin, de - stroyed by
3. lines. Some trust them - selves to seers di - vin - ing
4. thought; the weak - ness of our God un - weaves what

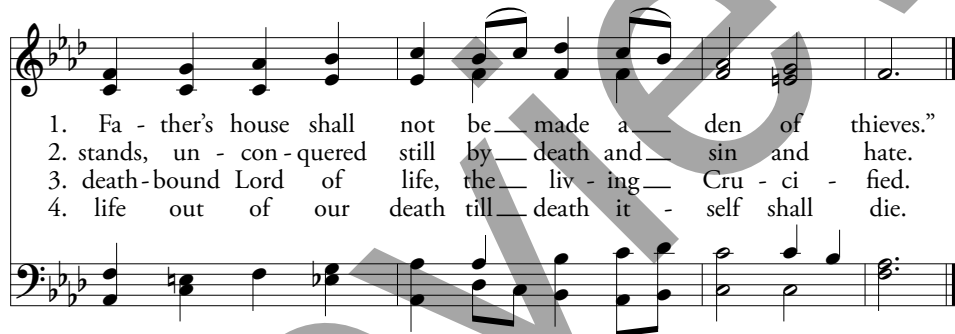

1. God a lone, Christ stands a - gainst these
2. Ro - man rage. Be - trayed by hu - man
3. fu - tile signs. But Christ stands: God en -
4. pow'r has wrought. O God be - yond con -

CHRIST STANDS, CONT.

1. pow'rs, and zeal - ous - ly he grieves: "My
2. guile, con - demned by priest and state, Christ
3. fleshed, e - ter - ni - ty en - timed, the
4. straint, ful - fill your great de - sign: draw

1. Fa - ther's house shall not be made a den of thieves."
2. stands, un - con - quered still by death and sin and hate.
3. death - bound Lord of life, the liv - ing Cru - ci - fied.
4. life out of our death till death it - self shall die.

Text: 66 66 D; Michael Joncas, b. 1951, © 2014, Jan Michael Joncas Trust. Published by OCP. All rights reserved.
Music: LEONI; Hebrew melody; adapt. by Meyer Lyon, c. 1770.

Alternative hymn tune: OLD DOMINION