

30130945
30130946 (PDF)

The Light of Christmas Morn
Two-part Choir, Keyboard, Guitar, Assembly

Sarah Hart

The Light of Christmas Morn

Sarah Hart

FROM THE RECORDING
This Winter's Eve
CD #30106690

The Light of Christmas Morn

Verses 1-4: Norval Clyne (1817-1888), adapt.
Verses 5-6: Sarah Hart

Sarah Hart
Piano acc. by Rick Modlin

INTRO (♩ = ca. 104)

B $\flat$

VERSES 1, 2, 4, 6

1. The winds of chill De - cem - ber sound the fare-well of the
2. 'Twas when the world was wax - ing old and night on Beth - l'em
4. Those shep - herds poor, how blest were they the an - gel song to
6. And o'er the child a guid - ing star shall lead us in - to

B $\flat$  E $\flat$

1. year, and eve - ning shad - ows gath - er round and
2. lay, the shep - herds saw the heav'ns un - fold a
4. hear, in man - ger cra - dle as he lay to
6. peace; and still, in souls that child - like are, his

B $\flat$

© 2011, Sarah Hart and River Oaks Music Co. Published by Spirit & Song®, a division of OCP, 5536 NE Hassalo, Portland, OR 97213.
All rights reserved. Administered at CapitolCMGPublishing.com. Used with permission.

1. cloud the soul with fear. But rest you well, good
 2. light be-yond the day. Such glo-ry ne'er had
 4. greet their Sav-ior dear. The Lord of heav'n's e-
 6. guard-ian love shall be. O then re-joice, good

E $\flat$  B $\flat$  E $\flat$

1. Chris-tian men, nor be of heart for-lorn; De-
 2. vis-it-ed a world with sin out-worn; but
 4. ter-nal height for us a babe was born; and
 6. Chris-tian men, nor be of heart for-lorn; for

B $\flat$ /D Cm7 Fsus4 F

to Coda ⊕

1. cem-ber's dark-ness brings a-gain the light of Christ-mas morn.
 2. yet more glo-rious Light is shed on hap-py Christ-mas morn.
 4. he, the ver-y Light of Light, shone forth that Christ-mas morn.
 6. un-to you in Beth-le-hem the Son of God is

B $\flat$  E $\flat$  to Coda ⊕ B $\flat$

1 2, 3 VERSES 3, 5

3. The
5. The

1 2, 3

3. wel-come snow at Christ-mas-tide falls shin-ing from the skies; on
 5. chap-el lights a-bove the snow do warm the cold-est chill, and

F Cm7

3. vil-lage paths and up-lands wide all ho-ly-white it lies. It
 5. man-ger scene by can-dle glow in-clines us to good-will. A-

E♭ B♭

3. crowns with pearl the oaks and pines and glit-ters on the thorn; but
 5. blaze in won-der and in awe as ev-ery heart a-dores; but

F Cm7

3. pur-er still the light that shines on glad-some Christ-mas morn.
 5. bright-er still the light that falls on glad-some Christ-mas morn.

E♭ Cm7 Fsus4

1

3. (Oh _____)

D.S.

1

F B $\flat$

D.S.

2

D.S. al Coda

2

F F $\text{sus}4$  F (let ring)

D.S. al Coda

⊕ CODA

6. born. De -

G $\text{m}$

6. cem - ber's dark - ness brings a - gain the light of Christ - mas morn.

ten. rit.

B $\flat$  (let ring) ten. E $\flat$  B $\flat$

rit.

The Light of Christmas Morn

(Guitar/Vocal)

Verses 1-4: Norval Clyne (1817-1888), adapt.
Verses 5-6: Sarah Hart

Sarah Hart

INTRO (♩ = ca. 104)

Capo 3: (G)
Bb

§ VERSES 1, 2, 4, 6

1. The winds of chill De - cem - ber sound the fare - well of the year,
2. 'Twas when the world was wax - ing old and night on Beth - l'em lay,
4. Those shep - herds poor, how blest were they the an - gel song to hear,
6. And o'er the child a guid - ing star shall lead us in - to peace;

1. and eve - ning shad - ows gath - er round and cloud the soul with fear.
2. the shep - herds saw the heav'n's un - fold a light be - yond the day.
4. in man - ger cra - dle as he lay to greet their Sav - ior dear.
6. and still, in souls that child - like are, his guard - ian love shall be.

1. But rest you well, good Chris - tian men, nor be of heart for - lorn;
2. Such glo - ry ne'er had vis - it - ed a world with sin out - worn;
4. The Lord of heav'n's e - ter - nal height for us a babe was born;
6. O then re - joice, good Chris - tian men, nor be of heart for - lorn;

1. De - cem - ber's dark - ness brings a - gain the light of Christ - mas morn.
2. but yet more glo - rious Light is shed on hap - py Christ - mas morn.
4. and he, the ver - y Light of Light, shone forth that Christ - mas morn.
6. for un - to you in Beth - le - hem the Son of God is © 2011, River Oaks Music Co. and Spirit & Song®, a division of OCP, 5536 NE Hassalo, Portland, OR 97213.

All rights reserved. Administered at CapitolCMGPublishing.com. Used with permission.

VERSES 3, 5

(D) F (Am7) Cm7

3. The wel - come snow at Christ - mas - tide falls shin - ing from the skies; on
 5. The chap - el lights a - bove the snow do warm the cold - est chill, and

(C) Eb (G) Bb

3. vil - lage paths and up - lands wide all ho - ly - white it lies. It
 5. man - ger scene by can - dle glow in - clines us to good - will. A -

(D) F (Am7) Cm7

3. crowns with pearl the oaks and pines and glit - ters on the thorn; but
 5. blaze in won - der and in awe as ev - ery heart a - dores; but

(C) Eb (Am7) Cm7 (Dsus4) Fsus4

3. pur - er still the light that shines on glad - some Christ - mas morn.
 5. bright - er still the light that falls on glad - some Christ - mas morn.

1 (D) F (G) Bb D.S.

3. (Oh - )

2 (D) F (Dsus4) Fsus4 (D) F (let ring) D.S. al Coda

⊕ CODA

(Em) Gm

6. born. De -

(G) Bb (let ring) (C) Eb (G) Bb

6. cem - ber's dark - ness brings a - gain the light of Christ - mas morn.

THE LIGHT OF CHRISTMAS MORN

Sarah Hart

Verses 1, 2, 4, 6

1. The winds of chill De - cem - ber sound the fare - well of the
 2. 'Twas when the world was wax - ing old and night on Beth - lem
 4. Those shep - herds poor, how blest were they the an - gel song to
 6. And o'er the child a guid - ing star shall lead us in - to

1. year, and eve - ning shad - ows gath - er round and cloud the
 2. lay, the shep - herds saw the heav'n's un - fold a light be -
 4. hear, in man - ger cra - dle as he lay to greet their
 6. peace; and still, in souls that child - like are, his guard - ian

1. soul with fear. But rest you well, good Chris - tian men, nor
 2. yond the day. Such glo - ry ne'er had vis - it - ed a
 4. Sav - ior dear. The Lord of heav'n's e - ter - nal height for
 6. love shall be. O then re - joice, good Chris - tian men, nor

1. be of heart for - lorn; De - cem - ber's dark - ness brings a -
 2. world with sin out - worn; but yet more glo - rious Light is
 4. us a babe was born; and he, the ver - y Light of
 6. of heart for - lorn; for un - to you in Beth - le -

Text: Verses 1-4, Norval Clyne, 1817-1888, adapt.; verses 5-6, Sarah Hart.
 Music: Sarah Hart. Text and music © 2011, Sarah Hart and River Oaks Music Co.
 Published by Spirit & Song®, a division of OCP, 5536 NE Hassalo, Portland, OR 97213. All rights reserved.
 Administered at CapitolCMGPublishing.com. Used with permission.

THE LIGHT OF CHRISTMAS MORN (cont.)

1. gain the light of Christ - mas morn.
 2. shed on hap - py Christ - mas morn.
 4. Light, shone forth that Christ - mas morn.
 6. hem the Son of God is born.

Verses 3, 5

3. The wel - come snow at Christ - mas - tide falls shin - ing from the
 5. The chap - el lights a - bove the snow do warm the cold - est

3. skies; on vil - lage paths and up - lands wide all ho - ly - white it
 5. chill, and man - ger scene by can - dle glow in - clines us to good -

3. lies. It crowns with pearl the oaks and pines and
 5. will. A - blaze in won - der and in awe as

3. glit - ters on the thorn; but pur - er still the
 5. ev - ery heart a - dores; but bright - er still the
 3. light that shines on glad - some Christ - mas morn.
 5. light that falls on glad - some Christ - mas morn.

to Verses 4, 6

For reprint permissions, please visit Onelicense.net or contact us at 1-800-663-1501.

7 68371 01187 1