Composer Notes

True peace can only be found by laying our burdens down at the feet of Jesus and trusting in his care.

The hymn is best sung with a gentle choral sound. Take care that the soprano descant part is sung with an open vowel and never overwhelms the melody.

An actual oboe may be used instead of a solo organ stop. In that case, the organist should not duplicate that line.

TALLIS' CANON

Verse 3: Choir

3. My Lord, I lay my burdens down;
I here renounce the world of gain.
Let nothing tempt me from your side:
may your Word guide, may your peace reign.
