Verses

1. O Lord, my God, how great, how glo - ri - ous!
2. When I be - hold the works your hands have made;
3. O Lord, my God, it is for you I long;

1. Your name re - sounds in all the earth.
2. the moon and stars which you ar - ranged,
3. my bod - y aches, my spir - it thirsts.

1. Yet you have made us just less than an - gels,
2. Lord, what is man? Lord, what is wom - an?
3. So will I praise you, so will I bless you;

1. and you have fash - ioned us to rule the earth.
2. What is the child of these that you should care?
3. my soul clings fast to you, I shout for joy.
