Lord, Let Me Love You More and More

Music by Christopher Walker

Text by
James Quinn, SJ

FROM THE COLLECTION
Love Beyond Knowledge
Octavo Packet #30140567
CD #30140568
Lord, Let Me Love You More and More

James Quinn, SJ, 1919–2010

Christopher Walker

Lord, let me love you more and more, my love for you a flowing tide;

peacefully (♩ = ca. 92)

[Music notation]

you did not love with grudging heart, but loved us all with arms spread wide.

Text © 1994, James Quinn, SJ. Published by OCP, 5536 NE Hassalo, Portland, OR 97213. All rights reserved.

Music © 2017, Christopher Walker. Published by TRINITAS, 5536 NE Hassalo, Portland, OR 97213. All rights reserved.
Let me not measure love's return but love you,

Lord, with all my soul; let my small love be lost in you, and found once more as love made whole, as love made whole. Teach me to love as Mary loved, the Lord, Let Me Love You More and More

Composer Notes
This is a simple unaccompanied SATB setting of the first three verses of the hymn text, ‘Lord, Let Me Love You More and More’ by Father James Quinn, SJ. It may be sung at any time, but especially at moments of personal commitment: the Rite of Election at the beginning of Lent, Palm Sunday, Good Friday, and feasts celebrating the Mother of God.

In the foreword to Hymns for all Seasons (ed. 30132863), Father Andrew Cameron Mowat, SJ writes: ‘Quinn’s hymn texts are remarkably economic and terse, strong and clear...bereft of verbosity and cliché.’ In keeping with the spirit of Father Quinn’s writing this simple setting enhances the text with the minimum of musical devices.

Here is verse 4 (not set in this arrangement):

She is your Bride, the sinless Eve,
who now in glory gazes down
on us, the children of her pain:
lead us, we pray, to share her crown.

—Christopher Walker