Composer Notes

“All Good Gifts” is a song of gratitude that echoes Saint Paul’s assertion in Ephesians 1:3 that every spiritual blessing from the heavens is lavished on us! Themes of thanksgiving, gifts, blessings, and the hope to which we are called, all resonate with the text and musical colors of the piece. I am sincerely grateful for the life and ministry of Sister Sue Bruno, for whom this piece was composed. Liturgically, this song works well during the Presentation of Gifts, or sung as a Communion meditation or song of praise. There are many options to embellish the timbre of the piece with the included solo instrument and handbells parts. Additionally, a string quartet arrangement is available online (30141075).

The musical score is written for Flute I and Flute II in 3/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It consists of five systems of music. The first system is the Intro, marked 'With gentleness and hope' with a tempo of 64-74. It features a melody for Flute I and a supporting line for Flute II. The second system is the Refrain, marked 'a tempo', with a repeat sign and a first ending. The third system is the Final, marked 'rit.' and 'Fine'. The fourth system is Verses 1-3, featuring a triplet of eighth notes in the Flute I part. The fifth system continues the verse melody, marked 'rit.' and 'D.S.' (Da Capo).
