The image shows a musical score for three staves (treble, alto, and bass clefs) in a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 6/8 time signature. The score is divided into two sections: a first ending labeled '1-4' and a final ending labeled 'Final'. The first ending concludes with a D.S. (Da Capo) instruction. The final ending concludes with a rit. (ritardando) instruction. The music features a drone effect in the bass line, with notes on the low and high E strings of a guitar tuned down to D. A large, diagonal watermark reading 'Preview' is overlaid across the score.

Composer Notes

Easter is a season for “Alleluias!” This song emphasizes both the resurrection and the “rising up from the water” of all those initiated into Christ’s paschal mystery. The resurrection, or risen life, is not only in the future but here and now if we truly put on Christ—our baptismal call—and live eucharistically as a people who bring Christ’s life and love to others. Guitarists: This can be played with the low and high E strings tuned down to D in order to give the drone effect featured on the recording.
