Play entire Refrain as an Intro.

Note: The verses of this song are presented in the notational format used in OCP's contemporary psalter, Spirit & Psalm, the introduction of which contains a more detailed explanation of this style. When the cantor sings the verses metrically, the accompanist plays all printed notes in the same tempo as the refrain while the cantor sings the lyrics in a rhythm that feels natural. If the cantor chooses to chant the verses, the accompanist plays only the full-sized notes that support the melodic note changes (omitting cue-sized notes). Those notes are sustained until the next chord shown in full-sized notes. The accompaniment resumes a metrical feel at the "a tempo" marking.

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD

Sarah Hart

The Lord is my shep-herd; there is noth-ing I shall want.

The Lord is my shep-herd; there is noth-ing I shall want.

1. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul. 2. He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.	3. You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. 4. Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.
