We remember the night you broke the bread,
 the mercy of the words you said,
 and the life you would lose to make us new.
 We break this bread
 in remembrance of you.

We remember the night of agony
 that led the King to Calvary.
 Oh, the pain you endured, your love to prove.
 We take this gift in remembrance of you.

We remember the night you took the cup,
 the pouring out of deathless love.
 In the sins you would bear, our hope renewed,
 we take this cup in remembrance of you.

Verse 4

We remember the day love moved the stone to make the pow'r of heaven known and to welcome us all to life in you.
 We come to the feast in remembrance of you.

This is your body we come to receive.
 This is the promise we've come to believe.
 We are one body in spirit and truth.
 We give our lives
 in remembrance of you.

 This is the promise we've come to believe.
