O Salutaris

Edition #60101058

Composer Notes

The O Salutaris is the last two verses of St. Thomas Aquinas's hymn Verbum Supernum Prodiens, which is the Lauds hymn for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi.

During the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, O Salutaris is often sung to the hymn tunes DUGUET, WERNER, and various other long meter melodies. However, like the Tantum Ergo, sung at Benediction, there are several different chant melodies in various modes. The Cantus Selecti ad Benedicionem SS. Mi Sacramenti (1957) has seven chant settings of the O Salutaris, including the Mode VIII setting found in this edition. While it is uncommon to have a choir at the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, this setting may be used as a motet for Holy Thursday, Corpus Christi, or throughout the year during or following the reception of Holy Communion.

—Alvez Barkoskie IV

Translation

O Salutaris Hostia, Quae caeli pandis ostium: Bella premunt hostilia, Da robur, fer auxilium.	O Saving Victim open wide The gate of heav'n to us below! Our foes press on from every side; Your aid supply, your strength bestow.
Uni trinoque Domino, Sit sempiterna gloria, Qui vitam sine termino Nobis donet in patria. Amen.	To your great name be endless praise, Immortal Godhead, One in Three, O grant us endless length of days When our true land we see. Amen.
